Allies Pledge Aid If Poles Retire

PROMISE HINGES
ON WITHDRAWAL TO BOUNDARIES

If Poland is Then Attacked by Bolsheviki, Allies Will Give Country Every Possible Assistance.

ARMISTICE PROPOSED
BY ALLIES TO SOVIET Cessation of Hostilities to Be Followed by Conference of All Countries on Russian Border.

Spa, Belgium, July 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—If the Poles consent to retire within the natural frontiers of Poland, the allies will give them all possible assistance in the event of their being attacked by the bolsheviki. This announcement was made here today.

The allies have sent a proposal to the Russian soviet government for an armistice with Poland on condition that the Poles retire within their natural Polish frontier. It is set forth that the armistice will be followed by a conference of representatives of all the countries on the Russian border and that if the bolsheviki attack the Poles within these frontiers the allies will come to the aid of Poland.

BRITAIN'S AGREEMENT
STUNS POLES.

Spa, July 10.—Up to a late hour today the Polish delegation had not been able to communicate to the allied conferees the text of the Polish note to the allies concerning peace with the Moscow government which was received in garbled form by telegraph during the day. The Warsaw government was asked by the delegation to repeat the note by wire, in the hope that it might be received in proper form and presented before the adjournment of the conference.

The Polish representatives appeared to be rather stunned by the announcement that Great Britain had concluded arrangements with the soviet concerning commercial intercourse. They assumed that one of the British conditions was the withdrawal of the bolshevik menace to India and it was noted that recent information received by the Polish military intelligence service had disclosed the withdrawal from the Persian front of numerous soviet battalions, said to be intended for the use of the Polish front.

This news was taken by the Poles to mean that the Moscow government had abandoned for the moment any forward movement in the direction of India.

MINSK REPORTED
TAKEN BY REDS.

London, July 11.—A round-about report that the bolshevik driving against the Poles had occupied Minsk was received here today. The report originated in Kovno, it is stated, and was forwarded by the Central News correspondent at Copenhagen. (This report has not been confirmed from any direct source.)

Spa, Belgium, July 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—"This is a decisive moment for Poland," said Ladislav Grabski, the Polish premier, to fifty correspondents of all countries who called upon him today by invitation. "Our army is engaged with the mobilized forces of Russia, with a population six times our own, an army, and of superior quality, better equipped instruments of war, supplied by the armies of the Denikene, Kolchak and Yudenich, armored automobiles, tanks, machine guns and heavy artillery."

The bolshevik army has much more to fight with than the Polish army, and of superior quality, besides masses of cavalry. The bolshevik offensive has created for us a serious situation, but not a desperate one."

GREEK FORCES CLASH WITH ITALIAN TROOPS

Constantinople, July 10.—Greek and Italian troops have clashed at Nazilli, 25 miles northeast of Aidin, in the Italian zone. The Greeks claimed the right to enter the Italian zone in pursuit of Turkish nationalists organizing attacks there against the Greeks. The Italians claimed that they were polling the district and declared that they were not willing to permit the Greeks to intervene.

The feeling is described as extremely bitter between the Italian and Greek officials. The Greeks claim that the Italians are using all possible means to further the interests of Mustafa Kemal, Pasha, the nationalist leader.

IN AUTO ACCIDENT

George A. Willis Arrested on Charge of Operating Machine While Under the Influence of Liquor.

Jeanette Singleton, 16-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Singleton, of 105 Lee street, and Janie Jones, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jones, of Hampton, Ga., were seriously injured Sunday afternoon when the car in which they were riding with Mr. and Mrs. Singleton, collided with a touring machine driven by George A. Willis, 22 years old, of Canton, Ga.

The victims were rushed to the Wesley Memorial hospital, where it was stated that the Singleton baby had sustained internal injuries and was in a critical condition. Janie Jones has a fractured lower limb and deep lacerations and bruises about the body.

County Policemen Head and Cates, who investigated the accident, looked Willis up under the charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of whisky. His bond was fixed at $1,000. E. S. Sissum, who was riding in the car with Willis, was also placed in the Fulton county jail charged with being drunk and disorderly on the public highway. He is held under a $200 bond.

The accident occurred on the Bolton road near the river. It is said that Willis was going towards Bolton, near the Marietta road, when he collided with the car. Mr. Singleton was coming towards Atlanta.

Willis said the automobile he was driving belonged to A. L. Bandy, of West Tenth street.

ACCEPTS THE CALL OF LOCAL CHURCH

Louisville, Ky., July 11.—(Special.)—Members of the Fourth Avenue Baptist church heard with regret this morning the announcement that the Rev. Dr. William Mosby Seay, for the past four years pastor of the congregation, had accepted a call to the pulpit of the West End Baptist church, Atlanta.

Prior to his charge here, Dr. Seay was pastor of the Russellville Baptist church, serving at the same time as professor of philosophy and Bible at Bethel college, also located at Russellville, Ky.

Dr. Seay's congregation took no action on his resignation, but indicated that it would be accepted next Sunday morning, so that Dr. Seay may go to Atlanta the last of August in order that he may occupy his new pulpit the first Sunday in September.

Within ten months after Dr. Seay came to Louisville, the Fourth Avenue church, one of the largest here, an indebtedness of $20,000 was lifted from the church, which is now entirely free of debt and in a prosperous condition.

Dr. Seay said that while he regretted leaving Louisville, he felt that the field in Atlanta offered him larger opportunities for service.

JUDGE MEDDERS
SLAIN IN ALMA;
DEDEGE IS HELD

Alma, Ga., July 11.—(Special.)—Judge C. J. Medders was shot in the back and instantly killed last night about 10 o'clock as he was looking his place of business. The parties who did the killing were in an automobile. It is charged that the car is said to have been traced out of town to the home of Dr. John Dedge, and Floyd Dedge is in jail charged with the crime. A shotgun was used, and nine buck shot entered the head and back of the slain man.

It is said that there has been bad blood between the two families for some time and that Judge Medders was warned yesterday that he would be killed.

Dr. Dedge, who is employed at the plantation of Dr. Dedge, was arrested by Sheriff J. W. Gooch at 10 o'clock tonight. In connection with the killing of Judge Medders, the sheriff stated that he had a warrant for Dr. Dedge, but could not locate him.

Judge Medders was a justice of the peace of Bacon county for many years, and was 62 years of age.

Several years ago, it was stated by close friends of Judge Medders, he and Dr. Dedge were said to have attacked horses to a negro's head and toured the county with the "Horned Hound." An inquest will be held tomorrow.

Recognition of Regime Should in No Case Be Other Than of De Facto Character, Says Fletcher.

WOULD SECURE RIGHTS OF AMERICANS THERE

Declares Property of U. S. Citizens Seized During the Rule of Carranza Should Be Restored First.

Greencastle, Pa., July 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—Warning against recognition of the new Mexican government was given the administration today by Henry P. Fletcher, former ambassador to Mexico.

In a letter to Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, he urged that in no case should the recognition of the de la Huerta regime be other than that of a de facto character, such that the understanding that even this would be withdrawn should subsequent events prove that it was prematurely extended.

Mr. Fletcher's letter resulted from negotiations now in progress between the department and Dr. Iglesias Calles, Mexican high commissioner to the United States regarding recognition of the new government at Mexico City.

Dr. Iglesias Calles has assured the American government of the desire of the new regime to live up to the obligations of a government, but Mr. Fletcher in his letter suggested that before any recognition was extended an informal agreement be made with the Mexican authorities that American citizens would not be deprived of their property rights without compensation, and that such property as they were deprived of during the Carranza regime without compensation would be returned to them.

Letter to Colby.

Mr. Fletcher was the American ambassador to Mexico during the Carranza administration, but resigned several months ago because of a disagreement with the American government's policy toward Mexico. His letter to Secretary Colby follows:

"In my capacity as a private citizen interested in good relations between the United States and Mexico may I suggest for your consideration that they may deserve the following regarding the recognition of the new government of Mexico:

"Without animadverting to past difficulties and with a view to avoiding a repetition of them I would respectfully suggest:

"First—That the United States should not recognize the new government of Mexico until it is reasonably clear that said government is not only willing, but able to regard the fundamental duties of a government, i. e., to maintain law and order and to afford adequate protection to the lives and interests of foreigners in Mexico.

"Second—That the new regime should be recognized, if at all, merely as the de facto government, and it should be informed that such recognition was provisional and should be withdrawn if it should subsequently prove to have been prematurely extended.

"Third—That before extending such de facto recognition we should endeavor to secure an informal agreement (to later be made formal if desired) covering the following matters:

"(A) That the constitution of 1917 and the law passed in pursuance thereof shall not be given retroactive effect as to property lawfully acquired previously to its promulgation and that American citizens shall not be deprived of their lawfully acquired rights without compensation.

"(B) Return to American citizens and corporations of such property as was seized during the Carranza regime without compensation by either national or state governments of Mexico.

"(C) Immediate constitution of a mixed Mexican-American claims commission to adjust all claims of American citizens against the government of Mexico, and of Mexican citizens against the government of the United States.

"(D) Appointment of commissioners to all other boundary questions, including the deflection, canalization and protection of the waters of the Colorado river for the irrigation of the Imperial valley in Mexico and in the United States. I make no mention of financial or economic matters, believing that they should form the subject matter of negotiations subsequent to recognition.

"We should make it clear that these conditions are attached to our recognition merely because our unfortunate experience with the Carranza government make them appear necessary. To avoid a future irreparable and above all that we are not asking for our national's privileged position, but simply justice."

Former Empress Eugenie
Passes Away in Madrid

FORMER EMPRESS EUGENIA.

Madrid, July 11.—The former Empress Eugenie, of France, died this morning.

Death occurred shortly before 8 o'clock from acute intestinal inflammation. She passed away quietly in the presence only of her lady-in-waiting. Her nephew, the Duke of Alba, at whose residence she died, was in France and the other members of the family were absent.

Empress Eugenie had long suffered from ophthalmia, and had been operated on for cataract. Full imperial honors will be accorded at her funeral.

Preparations are under way for the opening of Empress Eugenie's will. The only member of the family now in Madrid is a niece.

The death of the empress is not yet known generally in Madrid, owing to the Spanish Sunday rest law.

Eugenie Marie de Montijo, former empress of France, was born in Granada, Andalusia, Spain, May 5, 1826. She was the second daughter of Count Manuel Fernandez de Montijo, Duke of Pezanda, and Maria Manuela Kirkpatrick, of Glasgow, Dumfriesshire, Scotland. Her maternal grandfather was William Kirkpatrick, United States consul at Malaga, who was a native of Scotland, but a nationalized American.

The former empress was educated in France, Spain and England, and traveled extensively with her mother on the European continent.

She married Napoleon III, first in 1851, and married him in Notre Dame cathedral, Paris, January 30, 1853. France

Charles Stephens, of Bristol, England, Killed When Barrel Is Smashed on Rocks at the Foot of Horseshoe Falls.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., July 11.—Charles Stephens, of Bristol, England, was killed today when he went over the Horseshoe falls in a barrel. The cask in which he made the trip though built of stout Russian oak staves and bound with steel hoops, was smashed like an egg shell on the jagged rocks at the base of the cataract. Pieces of the barrel were picked up near the bank on the Canadian side, but Stephens' body has not been recovered. River men say that it may not come to the surface for a week or ten days.

Stephens was fifty-eight years old and has a wife and eleven children in Bristol, where he was a barber. He served three years in France with the British army. He had planned to make a lecture tour of England if his trip was successful, above the falls.

Bobby Leach, who went over the Horseshoe falls in 1911, told Stephens before he started that his trip would be a failure. Leach predicted that the barrel would not withstand the drop of 155 feet, but Stephens refused to be dissuaded.

A few knew that Stephens was to make the trip today and when the barrel was towed out into the river on the Canadian side, two miles above the falls, there were only a dozen on hand to watch. It was 5:15 o'clock in the morning when Stephens was cast adrift. Early sightseers on Goat Island saw the barrel bobbing up and down in the tumbling reaches of the upper rapids, but none of them knew that it carried a man about to defy the cataract.

Cask Falls to Reappear.

Members of Stephens' party followed the cask downstream in automobiles. In one of the cars a moving picture operator filmed the progress of the barrel. As the barrel drew near the brink of the falls it seemed to stand on end, hesitate a Combination of Committee of 48 and Labor Party Planned at Meeting of Conferees.

BOLSHEVIKI CHEERED
BY LABOR DELEGATES

Fitzpatrick Predicts Day "When American Working People Will Do Job Such as Workers of Russia Have Done."

Chicago, July 11.—Amalgamation of the committee of forty-eight and labor party of the United States with a common platform and common presidential ticket will be recommended to the two conventions tomorrow, it was decided tonight by their conference committee. After several hours discussion the conferees adopted three resolutions recommending combination of the two groups, and then took up discussion of a name for the new party.

J. A. H. Hopkins, chairman of the committee of forty-eight, and Oscar Barnett, of Connecticut, chairman of the labor party, conferees, said these recommendations will be submitted to the conference committee to their respective conventions tomorrow for formal action.

The most favored name for the proposed new political party, which is expected to be formed by amalgamation of liberal groups in convention here, is "the American party." It was authoritatively learned tonight.

The party of the United States today opened its second national convention, with representatives of many other organizations present.

The committee of forty-eight and the single-tax conventions were in recess over Sunday, but attended the labor convention in force.

John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, a keynote speaker, brought the convention to the highest enthusiasm with a plea "that the day would come when the working people of the United States would get together and do a job such as the workers of Russia have done."

Soviet Russia Cheered.

The biggest demonstration of the day was accorded this reference, delegates stamped and whistled, and when one called for "three cheers for Russia," they were given.

Fitzpatrick declared that there was nothing to prevent the "hand and brain workers taking the government out of the hands of, not Americans, but international financial pirates," and advised all the minority groups to unite on one ticket.

In opening the convention, Max Hayes, chairman of the labor party's national committee, declared that "every political group assembled in this city agrees in substance to the platform" which the labor party had formulated last November. This statement brought forth prolonged applause in which delegates wore badges of the single-taxers, forty-eighters and other elements attending the convention joined.

The November labor platform declared for nationalization of all essential industries, abolition of the United States senate and of income tax power of judges in labor disputes, declared for the Plumb plan, steep income taxes, world-wide disarmament, a national budget and limitation of the "United States supreme court's power to veto legislation."

The convention responded to the suggestions of Fitzpatrick and Hayes by naming a committee of twelve to confer with a similar group from the committee of forty-eight in an effort to develop a common ground on which all could meet.

This conference was intended to iron out details that had proved stumbling blocks to amalgamation.

Throughout the discussion on combining the strength of the minority groups there appeared a trend of optimism among the delegates. Speakers argued that by such action they were presenting a solid front, "against a common enemy."

Invited Into "Third Party."

C. J. France, Seattle, who presented the forty-eighters' invitation to the labor group to join the new party movement, told the convention the question of platform was "incidental" and that beneath it "are the economic principles for which all of you and we can fight."

As a name for the new party, "Farmer-Labor" was suggested. Its consideration, however, was postponed.

The thunder of foot stamping and cheering punctuated the Fitzpatrick address. His speech lost all re-

COX PLANS TO PICK
REAL DIRT FARMER

If Democrats Win, He Will Appoint as Secretary of Agriculture Man Who Has Tilled Soil.

GOV. COX HAS SOMETHING
WITH 7 PER CENT KICK

Dayton, Ohio, July 11.—Governor Cox has a large and lusty-lunged living emblem of the democratic party in the corral of his farm near here.

Gov. Cox is expected to call him 7 per cent, said the democratic standard bearer today. "He certainly has a kick."

Dayton, Ohio, July 11.—A real dirt farmer will be the next secretary of agriculture if the democratic party is successful at the November election, according to a statement made today by Governor Cox, the democratic presidential nominee. His promise to appoint a former as head of the nation's farming activities, providing he is elected, were made to a delegation of the governor's neighbor farmers who called at his home at Trail's Bend.

He said: "If elected president, I will select a dirt farmer as secretary of agriculture, a man who has tilled the soil himself and made a successful business of farming, in the doing of which he has demonstrated his efficiency as a business man."

Former Congressman T. T. Ansberry, of Washington, arrived this morning from San Francisco and gave the presidential nominee first-hand details of the convention activities, which resulted in his selection to lead the party. Mr. Ansberry told the governor that the credit for his victory goes to E. H. Moore, of Youngstown, his pre-convention manager.

Mr. Ansberry told newspaper representatives that the contest at San Francisco was between McAdoo, Palmer and Cox, and not between the administration and Cox. No announcement as to discussion of campaign plans was made.

In the afternoon the governor and Mrs. Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Ansberry motored to the nominee's boyhood home at Jacksonburg.

The governor will go to Columbus tomorrow to resume work at the executive office. A reception is planned for him at the capitol in the afternoon. Franklin D. Roosevelt, his running mate, will stop over for a few hours on his return from San Francisco for a conference.

STANHOPE IRWIN DYING

Passes Through Atlanta Bound for Athens.

Stanhope Irwin, formerly of Athens, Ga., who has been living in California for some years, arrived in Atlanta last night on a private car, with his neck broken from an accident he met with in San Francisco several weeks ago. He was accompanied by his mother, his brother, Mayor Andrew Irwin, of Athens, and other members of the family, and a physician and nurse.

Mr. Irwin's condition is precarious, and his death is probable at any moment. During the early hours of Sunday, while just west of Nashville, it was believed he would pass away before the train could reach that city, but under powerful stimulants he was kept alive, and his physicians were hopeful last night that the patient could be gotten to Athens before the end, and there, in the quiet of his home, his life prolonged, if such a thing is humanly possible.

A peculiar coincidence is the similar fate that befell his older brother, Alex Irwin, some years ago. He also fell in the dark from a back porch, and broke his neck. In that case, however, the accident caused immediate death.

Germans Specify That Final Agreement on Fuel Will Modify Their Proposals for Reparation.

MILLERAND INSISTS ON TERMS OF TREATY

Dr. Simon Makes Plea for Open Discussions by Both Parties, Instead of One-Sided Discussions.

Spa, Belgium, July 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—After some hesitation, due to the coal question, the German delegates today produced their plan showing how Germany would deal with reparations, but they specified that the decision reached regarding coal would modify their proposals.

The allied experts had declared they did not consider that even the figures submitted by the Germans would justify modifications of the protocol signed July 9, but admitted the justice of the German experts' plea on the obligation of reporting to the reparations commission regarding the distribution of coal within Germany, and, second, approving the proposal to increase the output by improving the food and fuel situation, and suggesting that the German and allied governments discuss means to this end.

Lord Curzon Present.

The plenary session of the conference began at 5:30 o'clock this evening, with Lord Curzon representing Great Britain instead of Premier Lloyd-George, who was confined to his room all day with a cold. The conference immediately took up the coal question, the experts having failed to come to an agreement. Chancellor Fehrenbach, Dr. Simons, Herr Schines and others of the German delegation had previously conferred lengthily on the subject.

Dr. Simons, at the outset of the session, remarked that coal was the central point of the whole economic life of Germany.

"The solution given to the coal question by the experts," he said, "will react upon the different plans of reparations prepared by the German delegation, which had understood that an agreement which would take into account the economic conditions judged essential to Germany would be arrived at. The plans cannot be handed over this evening as was expected."

Premier Millerand expressed surprise that the communication of the German plan as announced yesterday should be brought into question and subordinated to the experts' solution of the coal question.

Dr. Simons rejoined that the German delegation had prepared plans that must be studied as a whole to be understood.

The German delegation retired to reconsider the matter, and on the resumption of the session the foreign secretary declared that since the final decision regarding coal could not be taken until tomorrow the German delegation had decided to hand over the plans as prepared, but he added that the Spa conference had for its object the substitution of an open discussion by the allies and German delegates for one-sided decisions on various questions.

"The question of coal is a question of life or death to the Germans," said Dr. Simons, "and remains the basis for all other plans." Premier Millerand replied that there could be no question of modifying the treaty of Versailles on that subject, and that it must be executed.

INCREASING USE OF OIL MENACE TO U. S. FUTURE

Asserts David White,
Chief Geologist of U. S.
Geological Survey—Situation, Genuinely Critical, Must Be Met at Once, He Says.

BY JOHN LEISSNER.
United News Staff Correspondent.
Washington, July 11.—The growing American consumption of petroleum may constitute one of the greatest menaces to the future prosperity of the United States and to its later equality of competition with the rest of the world, David White, chief geologist of the United States geological survey, declared today.

"The oil situation confronting the United States is genuinely critical and demands the most sober thought and wise but prompt action," said White. "It is time to call a halt and inquire whether we are drifting and where we shall end."

White considers 7,000,000,000 barrels as a moderate but not liberal estimate of the oil remaining in the ground in the United States. Production is closely approaching 400,000,000 barrels annually.

Recoverable oil in this country, according to conservative estimates, would probably be practically exhausted in seventeen years if the 1919 rate of production could be maintained, White said. A reserve of 7,000,000,000 barrels, considered a moderately liberal estimate, would disappear in eighteen and a half years, it is figured.

White estimated that by 1925 the requirements of the petroleum industry in this country will approximate 650,000,000 barrels a year, an increase of over 220,000,000 barrels over the requirements of 1919.

The Remaining Oil.
"A drain of over one-half billion barrels, even if the annual demand be not further increased, would, if taken from the oil fields of the United States, probably exhaust the oil resources remaining available in the ground in 14 years, or in 16 years, if we assume that our dependence on foreign oil fields to the extent of 150,000,000 barrels and possibly as much as 200,000,000 of crude oil each year, except in so far as the situation may be by that time, perhaps, helped to a slight extent by shale oil.

"Add to this probability the other greater probability that within five years, or perhaps only three, our domestic production will begin to fall off with increasing rapidity, due to the exhaustion of our reserves, and it becomes evident that except for such relief as may come from shale oil production, America's future in oil will yearly become more and more dependent on supplies to be brought from foreign fields. This we cannot evade and must prepare for."

Solution Not in Sight.
White said that prevention of waste, restriction of employment and greater efficiency in use and recovery of oil will give great assistance, but all combined will not meet the situation nor solve the problem.

"The United States must either assure itself of sufficient oil for the future, or it must change its habits and cut down its use of oil," he said.

The present outlook makes it practically certain that after a time the United States will be buying oil from commercial rivals in quantities greater than it ever sold to them, White said.

"While this may be inevitable, it should be escaped as far as possible," he added. "If we are to have these oils as cheaply as they are sold in the home countries, if our industries, our transportation, our navy and our standards of living are to be safeguarded in advantages as great as those of our rivals, and if our merchant ships are to get their fuel oil at prices as low as those of our rivals, the oil supplies needed must be in the control of our own nationals."

"Our prosperity and our prospects must not be subject to prejudicial regulations or discriminatory restrictions, by any foreign power, whether ally or enemy. Only by assuring control of our national oil supplies over the oil supplies required by this country can the protection of our future be guaranteed."

Sold in Small Tracts

The Atlanta Land Auction company announces the sale of the Julius P. Richards farm of 75 acres, located on the Campbellton road, and owned by W. C. Porter and F. B. Hadlock, of Texas. The land was sold to the highest bidder in small tracts. The consideration is $20,000, but it is understood that it was entirely satisfactory to both buyer and seller.

Mr. Olesby, manager of the Atlanta Land Auction company, is an enthusiastic advocate of this means of selling farm land. He announced that he would be in the office, he can see a very active farm business for all farm dealers.

HOMER WEAVER WILL ASK BOND REDUCTION

Hearing on the petition of Homer Weaver, a cotton mill operative confined in the Fulton county tower in default of $2,000 bond on federal charges of violating the prohibition law, was held today in court. The hearing was held at 10 o'clock this morning before Judge Samuel H. H. Weaver has been imprisoned in the tower since the latter part of June, where he was committed by United States Commissioner W. Colquitt Carter in default of $2,000 bond. At a preliminary trial before Commissioner Carter, witnesses testified that he transported contraband liquor in an automobile stolen from a federal prohibition agent. His petition for a reduction of bond has filed Friday with the clerk of the federal court.

In his petition Weaver declares his innocence, and says he is the sole support of a widowed mother, and that unless his bond is reduced so that he can secure his release, he will be forced to become a public charge.

SUNDAY WAS BIG DAY AT WESLEY MEMORIAL

Sunday was a big day at Wesley Memorial church, large congregations being present at each service. In the morning the Rev. Charles Dunaway preached from the text, "Ye are the salt of the earth. Ye are the light of the world."

In the afternoon a large crowd was present, and the sermon was preceded by an experience meeting, in which the interest was so great that several were on their feet at one time giving personal testimony to what God had done for them.

The evangelist preached on the will of God, and showed that it was the Divine will that all men should repent, that they should be born again, and that they should be filled with the Spirit. Quite a number came to the altar under a proposition which was made seeking pardon and peace.

There will be no service Monday morning, but the usual service will be held Monday night, and the services will continue all Wednesday night, when they will be brought to a close.

GIRL WHO WAS STRUCK BY MACHINE IS BETTER

The condition of Lucy Mae Edwards, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Edwards, of 16 Ponders avenue, who was injured when struck by an automobile Saturday afternoon, was reported to be somewhat improved by doctors at the Grady hospital Sunday night. She is still in a critical condition, having sustained a fractured skull and a broken arm, as well as internal injuries.

The accident occurred in Marietta street, at the intersection of Ponders avenue, about 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. C. H. Edwards, driver of the machine that struck her, is under a $500 bond on charges of reckless driving.

BOND OF PRISONER, STABBED IN TOWER, REDUCED TO $1,000

The bond of Jack Smith, of 31 South Gordon street, who was stabbed Saturday afternoon in the Fulton county jail by Paul Payton, convicted in Coweta county and sentenced to serve ten years in connection with the theft of automobiles and robbery, was reduced Sunday from $3,000 to $1,000, by order of Solicitor General John A. Boykin.

Doctors at the Grady hospital stated Sunday afternoon that, while Smith's condition was somewhat improved, it was still serious. Smith was confined in the tower, following his commitment from the recorder's court under the charge of larceny of an automobile. Payton, who had begun serving his sentence on the chargin'g, was brought there to be used by the state as a witness in impending trials.

The Boy Scouts of Waycross have aided materially in a crusade against weeds and grass on the farms of Ware county, and they are commended by the farmers for their energetic work. The boys furnish their own tools, rakes and garden tools and gather at headquarters in the Municipal building early every morning. They are inspected by Scout Executive Sprouse. They are conveyed in parties to nearby farms, where they are left to combat with the weeds and grass which have gained such headway in this section of the state due to the undesirable weather conditions.

In most cases the boys are fed by their employers, but in a few instances they carry their lunch with them. One prominent agriculturist, residing about five miles east of Waycross, engaged sixteen boys for one week, and they were placed in the fields along with the other help. The owner of the farm was highly pleased with the results and with the exception of one or two who dropped out of the ranks and whose places were filled by others, the boys worked faithfully and about 95 degrees of temperature like "old timers."

A number of the Scouts have earned enough money to pay their camping expenses at the summer camp to be held at St. Simons, where the boys will be paid wages ranging from $1.50.

The Atlantic Coast Line railroad has granted special rates to Boy Scouts who will attend the summer camp, to be held August 18, for two weeks. It is estimated that about fifty or sixty boys will take advantage of the special rates. It is thought that officials will boost headquarters will join the Waycross Scouts.

RAILROAD TO SHOW PICTURES OF STATE

Waycross, Ga., July 11.—(Special.) Announcement was made today that the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad will make stereopticon slides of scenes in Waycross and Ware county, including scenes in the business and residential sections of the city, as well as of schools, houses, business and industrial enterprises and the homes of prominent citizens.

The agricultural development department of the road, which is headed by W. R. Tucker, is carrying on a campaign to advertise and boost the state of Georgia throughout the United States, and it is their purpose to put a man in the field whose sole business will be to display these scenes as an inducement to farmers and business men of other sections of the country to come to the empire state.

RULES FOR SELECTION OF WORLD JUDGE MADE

Job Must Not Be Held by Anyone in Political Position.

The Hague, July 11.—The following decision was reached today on selection of judges for the permanent court of international justice by the conference of jurists appointed to draft a plan for the court:

"The position of judge on the permanent court of international justice must not be assigned to any one discharging political duties, whether national or international. No one who is a member of a government or a representative in the council or assembly of the league of nations should at the same time be a judge of the international court. Selection of a distinguished judge, university personage, or eminent jurist should be made, and these disqualifications would, it is believed, meet with public approval."

The conference also decided that the selection of judges should be made by the league of nations, to which also was assigned the duty of filling any vacancies which might arise. Judges would be appointed for a term of nine years, as would those chosen to fill vacancies.

AFRICAN BEGGAR POSSESSED WEALTH

Macon, Ga., July 10.—(Special.) That the lowly beggar to whom you toss your nickel or dime is not always as desperately in need as you think, is shown by the case of Will Jones, an aged negro who was found dead in his home here, and who for years had lived on the bounty of the charitable inclined people of Macon.

When Coroner Wages was called to hold an inquest over his body, it was expected he would be buried at the expense of the county. It was discovered, however, that instead of being a pauper, Jones had a bank account of several hundred dollars.

For years Jones had made the drug store at Poplar and Broadway his headquarters.

Flood Drowns the Corn.

Waycross, Ga., July 9.—(Special.) Corn on the lowlands along the Chattooga river will have to be planted here after the high water has gone down, according to advisers, and this will further delay the crop and greatly reduce the yield. Practically all corn that was planted in the river bottom had been drowned by the high water, which stood on the young corn for more than forty-eight hours. The water has been so high that it has not been exceeded in a number of years, but was a direct repetition of the flood of 1917, which occurred at an earlier date by about two weeks, killing all the lowland corn.

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB TO SOLVE MOOTED BRIDGE PURCHASE

Brunswick, Ga., July 11.—(Special.)—At the regular weekly meeting Friday of the newly-organized Young Men's club, of Brunswick, the question of finally consummating a deal for the purpose of the old Georgia Coast and Piedmont bridge, connecting Glynn and McIntosh counties, was taken up, and the organization voted to finally bring about the opening of this bridge as its first work for Brunswick and its entire section.

The Brunswick Board of Trade now has a committee at work on the project and the Young Men's club appointed a committee to join with that of the board of trade, and the committee was requested to submit to the next weekly meeting of the new club all data with reference to the purchase, and as soon as this report is submitted active work looking to a final closing of the deal will begin.

Members of the board stated that two or three propositions were now under discussion by them, one providing for the formation of a stock company, to purchase the property, plank the bridge and operate it, charging a toll for traffic; another, to purchase the bridge, placing it in first-class condition, and then turning it over to the state.

It has also been suggested that the counties of Glynn, McIntosh, Liberty and Chatham, all of which are vitally interested in the bridge, should get together and purchase it, operating it jointly, and sell it to the state. Glynn and McIntosh counties to handle the deal. The new club voted yesterday to swing the deal. However, one thing is assured, that the bridge will be purchased, planked and put into operation, which will be a great improvement over the old ferry which was used by the railroad company.

The question of the price of the property will be taken up again with H. H. Dean and his associates, who, local people claim, have held the bridge at a price considered out of the question. It is believed, however, that these new owners will not now block the deal, which is so important to this entire section of the state.

SHIPPING MELONS IN FREIGHT CARS

Thomasville, Ga., July 11.—(Special.)—A few years ago the man who got $250 for a car of watermelons thought he was getting a splendid price, but in view of the larger prices obtained when the season opened this year that seems rather small. The best melons are bringing from $250 to $300. Some have sold for $150, but the 25¢ 30¢ have not dropped that low yet.

Everything possible is being done in the way of preventing a car shortage and telegrams have been received from officials of the interstate commerce commission and others showing that they are leaving nothing undone to insure an adequate supply of cars for the melon season. Some of the growers are said to be loading in box cars, nailing slats across the doors and cutting holes for ventilation, preferring to take this risk rather than take the chance of getting the ventilated melon cars.

HOPE FOR CAPTURE OF BERGDOLL SEEN

Montreal Office of U. S. Immigration Bureau Reports
He Is in Canada.

Washington, July 11.—Hope for the early capture of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, draft dodger, again is strong in Washington. This time it is understood Bergdoll is in Canada. The report of his whereabouts came from the Montreal office of the United States immigration bureau. It was stated that Bergdoll was thought to have crossed into Canada from northern New York.

Anthony Caminetti, commissioner general of immigration, is known to have consulted with officials of other departments, and Secretary of War Baker and state department officials were notified. It was said, in order to gain aid in "closing in" on the noted fugitive.

Bergdoll has been at large since May 21, when he escaped from Philadelphia, where he had been taken from his New York prison to prepare for a search for $125,000 in gold which Bergdoll asserted he had hidden. He had served only two months of his sentence of five years as a draft dodger.

Seldom, if ever, have more agencies of the federal government been called into the hunt for a man who has so much attention to the case.

Bergdoll being a military prisoner, the military intelligence division of the war department has devoted much attention to the case.

Secrets of the division of investigation in the justice department have followed scores of clues. Immigration authorities of the labor department are concerned in the most recent report that Bergdoll's capture is near.

Coast guard and customs officials have watched constantly for possible exits for the stocky Bergdoll. Aid of the state department is necessary in making arrangements for search for Bergdoll in Canada and if he is captured, in arranging his extradition.

Rumors concerning Bergdoll have come from many states as there are stars in the country's flag. The American Legion and Bergdoll's attorneys, who arranged for the trip leading to his escape, have offered large rewards. In Philadelphia, Bergdoll's German mother insists she does not know where her son is. A brother of Bergdoll, wanted as a draft dodger, never has been apprehended.

Whisky in Suitcases.

Davidsboro, Ga., July 11.—(Special.)—As N. B. Binlon stopped from Central of Georgia passenger train at 1 o'clock Friday morning, he was arrested by Revenue Officer S. M. Moye, assisted by Mayor L. J. Moye. Binlon had ten one-gallon cans of whisky in two suitcases. He was from Savannah, and was making regular trips to supply the thirsty. He will be taken to Augusta for trial.

Singers in Session.
Thomasville, July 10.—(Special.)—The Mitchell county singing convention held an all-day session in Camilla yesterday, with a large number of visitors present from nearby towns. President John Palmer, of the convention, was in charge, with others assisting him. The meeting was opened with an address by Colonel E. M. Davis, who was introduced by B. C. Gardiner. In addition to an all-day "sing," a dinner was served to the performers and the others present.

MATTHEWS FARM HEAD

He will direct the bureau of agriculture organization and colonization that is now being reorganized to inaugurate an intensive campaign to bring colonists to the southern states.

MEXICAN OFFICIALS COME TO 'SELL' U.S.

General Alvarado, Minister of Treasury, to Deal With American Bankers and Business Men.

Mexico City, July 11.—General Salvador Alvarado, minister of the treasury in the new government of Mexico, will sail the first of the week for New York, where he will endeavor to "sell" the new government to American bankers and business men, while Iglesias Calderon is seeking to convince the state department in Washington of his government's stability. General Alvarado, in an interview with the United States, said that he would not attempt to negotiate a loan, "for the time being, at least," in spite of the great expenditures, he said, and a diminution in revenues, the ordinary expenses of the government are being met without suspending any public service.

He wishes, however, to meet the leading American bankers and to convince them that the new government will welcome and protect foreign capital in the country. He is eager to promote trade between the two countries.

The Mexican Debt. It is probable, at the same time, that he will discuss the Mexican national debt, which he estimates at $140,000,000, of which a large part is owed to the United States, pledging the new government's word that it intends to begin payments on this debt as soon as possible, thus paving the way for a loan later if it is needed. He wants the bankers to accept Mexico as a sound proposition.

The minister will also study the American federal reserve system, in the hope of organizing a similar institution in Mexico. He considers the establishment of a sound banking system as the most important phase of Mexico's whole financial problem. In 1916, Carranza placed the banks in liquidation, finally confiscating them, gold and silver money, and the country is almost without banks. If they are to be revived, they must receive in some measure reimbursement for the action of Carranza.

Alvarado has already invited the United States to recommend a new banking law, and also to aid in the formation of a plan for the settlement of credits and other questions awaiting the attention of the government. Both the Mexican and American governments will be represented by the general will be Roberto Pesqueira, who will assume the post of Mexican financial agent in the United States. It is his aim to concentrate in New York the entire financial dealings between the two countries. Thus customs and duties collected at the border would be sent there to be held against purchases the government makes in the United States, such as for railway material.

Not a Radical. Finally Alvarado hopes that his visit will destroy the opinion in some quarters of America that he is a radical—a reputation he gained while governor of Yucatan, where he effected the state control of the henequen crop, raising the price of henequen to the American market. He denies that he has either bolshevism or socialist tendencies. "At least as the terms are understood in Europe," he declared, "I am not a radical. I am a man of the people and the government merely desire a better administrative organization so that they may derive all the benefit from the country's natural resources, bringing about industrial and commercial development, and improving the condition of the masses, which, at present, is pitiful."

Should a foreign loan be negotiated, it is Alvarado's idea that the money should be spent solely for national development, the government maintaining its current expenses out of its regular revenues.

Brunswick Man's Forecast.

Brunswick, Ga., July 10.—(Special.)—"I have just returned from a three weeks' trip through the state of Ohio, and I am just as sure that Jimmie Cox will carry that state over Senator Harding as I am that he will carry Georgia. That is the statement made by R. McGreggor, well-known Brunswick real estate dealer, who has been in the middle west for three weeks, and who traveled through Ohio during the last three weeks. Mr. McGreggor was in Ohio when the election was held, and he said that everywhere the people were talking about Cox as the standard bearer of the democrats. "If Cox is nominated," said McGreggor, "the republicans will be in a bad way."

McGreggor said the rank and file of the people in Ohio expected it.

MONSTER TRACT OF LAND IN WAYNE INVOLVED IN CASE

Brunswick, Ga., July 11.—(Special.)—One of the largest land cases ever to enter courts in south Georgia has been filed in Wayne superior court, coming under the new land and registration laws of Georgia. Approximately 75,000 acres of Wayne county land is involved, and the legal battle to follow is expected to be a spirited one, and the case will not doubt be in the courts for some time.

The land involved extends over a broad area, and includes that tract between Mt. Pleasant, just across the Glynn county line, and extending to Waynesville, in which is included the village of Brownstown and a dig, together with a large section of excellent farm lands.

In the case are T. R. C. Crowl, C. D. Christ and Calvin C. Walkins, all of Orlando, Fla., and the defendant is George D. M. Clark, of Brunswick. The case is one of those which claim some of the largest tracts of land in the state, and have large farms under operation; others are conducting turpentine farms, and some are engaged in other industries. Some of the owners have been in possession of the land for many years.

Colonel R. D. Meador, of the city, has been appointed special examiner in the case, and he will begin upon the duties, which, it is expected will take some time. He will examine all cases passed upon the question of titles, etc., and will then submit a report to the Wayne superior court. The case is one of the most important in the state, and the various parties interested in the case, representing the various landowners, are all well known in the state.

It is expected that some several months will be consumed in the case, and after that is completed the final decision will be made by the court. The case is one of the most important in the state, and the various parties interested in the case, representing the various landowners, are all well known in the state.
